

2015 Shades of Hope Recap

The Melanoma Foundation of New England's 6th annual Shades of Hope event on Friday, November 20th, 2015 at the Four Seasons Boston Hotel raised over $350,000 to support year-round educational programs and patient support. A crowd of over 350 guests came out to honor those touched by melanoma while offering bids in both silent and live auctions. WCVB's Emmy award-winning Anchor and Reporter Phil Lipof emceed the evening's events, which included the presentation of the Suzanne Donahue Keeper of the Hope Award to Boston City Councilor Matt O'Malley, and the staff of Constant Contact's InnoLoft including Andy Miller, Laura Northridge and Alec Stearn.

Also seen in the crowd were MFNE Executive Director Deb Girard; Kathy and David Donahue of Hingham; Rick Lipof of Lipof Real Estate Services Inc. and a Newton Alderman ; and Shades of Hope Co-Chairs Dr. Lisa Cohen of Strata DX and Dr. Robin Travers of SkinCare Physicians, Chestnut Hill.

